

Sector Snapshots: NFP Trends & Tactics for a Changing Ontario

There's a lot going on in the sector and we've developed an inspiring and time-effective presentation style to give you snapshots of trends in the sector.

5x5s (5 minutes with 5 slides) provide the overview you need to get a handle on the wide spectrum of sector issues, along with insightful examination from sector leaders, government and policy analysts:

Powerfully Understated: The Potential of Intangible Unclaimed Properties Faye Wightman, Vancouver Foundation	Open Sesame, Open Data: The Good, The Bad &amp; The Ugly of Sharing What We Know Tracey Lauriault, Carleton University	Shifting Power, Sharing Power &amp; Making Change: Unlikely Bedfellows Che Kothari and Devon Ostrom, Manifesto
Revenue Review: Mapping NFP Social Enterprise Activity in Ontario - Report Launch! Paul Chamberlain, Canadian Community Economic Development Network	It's Our Business: Revenue ≠ Profit (Stats &amp; Facts on the NFP Economy) Tim Nash, Strategic Sustainable Investments	Procurement Proshurement: The Buying Power of the NFP Sector Anne Jamieson, Toronto Enterprise Fund
We've Got Data! Now What? Labour Force Planning in Ontario's NFP Sector - Report Launch! Rob Howarth, Toronto Neighbourhood Centres	Small World, Big Lessons: Perspectives from Abroad Exciting speaker announcement soon!	Strategic Sharing in Rural and Urban Regions: Kick-Starting Collective Investment Lina Bowden, Pillar Nonprofit Network

Please note that all presentations, speakers and sessions are subject to change. All registered participants will receive a final schedule by email closer to the event date. Check back at www.theonn.ca to see updates and news before then!